

ABOUT NATURAL GAS

- the natural gas market is volatile – the price of gas changes by the week, day, hour and sometimes by the minute
- global economy, supply and demand, weather, politics and the price of oil can affect the price of natural gas
- gas marketers do not always reflect all costs in the price they offer

MEMBERS WILL

- be part of a large gas consortium to get the best possible price at the time of purchase
- have a dedicated account manager
- be in a gas consortium with other co-ops
- not be affected by the constant ups and downs of the gas market
- get a clear on bill price that reflects all costs of the gas purchase

ENERSTREAM WILL

- manage and advise the consortium about when to purchase
- develop a diverse purchase portfolio to get the best possible price
- handle all paperwork with local gas utilities to facilitate enrolment into the Co-op Cost Cutters natural gas program
